 - bankruptcy of the member, application by a member to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, a member compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit
 - absence, except on leave granted by the Committee, from two consecutive meetings of the Committee
 - failure to adequately perform their duties as a member of the Committee.

6 Performance of duties

6.1 Members of the Committee will:

- 6.1.1 act in the interests of the Library
- 6.1.2 apply appropriate skills, objectivity and judgement
- 6.1.3 express opinions constructively and openly, raise issues that relate to the Committee's responsibilities and pursue independent lines of enquiry

- 6.1.4 not communicate, publish, release or disclose any information provided to them as a Committee member, unless it is done in the course of performing their functions on the Committee

7 Administrative Arrangements

7.1 Reporting:

- 7.1.1 The Committee Chair or nominee will report to Council on the deliberations of the Committee. A verbal report to Council will be made after each Committee meeting summarising the key deliberations of the Committee.
- 7.1.2 Minutes of Committee meetings will be submitted to Council in draft for noting.
- 7.1.3 Written minutes, reports, advice and recommendations as well as presentations will be submitted to Council in a timely fashion for formal consideration by Council.
- 7.1.4 Annually the Committee will report to Council on its operation and activities during the year. The report will include:
- a summary of the work the Committee performed to discharge its responsibilities during the preceding year
 - advice on the appropriateness of the Library's:
 - financial reporting
 - performance reporting
 - system of risk oversight and management; and
 - system of internal control and legislative and policy compliance.
 - a summary of the Library's progress in addressing the findings and recommendations made in internal and external audit reports and parliamentary committee reports
 - an overall assessment of the Library's risk, control and compliance framework, including details of any significant emerging risks or legislative changes impacting the Library, and
 - details of meetings, including the number of meetings held during the relevant period, and the number of meetings each member attended.
- 7.1.5 Information about the Committee will be included in the Library's annual report in accordance with PGPA Rule 2014 requirements, this includes:
- the charter
 - membership including names of members
 - the qualifications, knowledge, skills or experience of each member;
 - details of each member's attendance at meetings; and
 - the remuneration of each member.

7.2 Meetings:

- 7.2.1 The Committee will meet at least four times a year.
- 7.2.2 All Committee members are expected to attend each meeting, in person or via tele-or-video conference.
- 7.2.3 A quorum will consist of three committee members. The quorum must be in attendance at all times during the meeting. A member who participates in a meeting held via use of technology, as specified in clause 7.2.2 is taken to be present at the meeting and to form part of any quorum for the meeting.
- 7.2.4 In the event of unavoidable absences, the Chair of Council may appoint interim members.
- 7.2.5 The Committee will develop a forward meeting schedule that includes the dates, location, and proposed agenda items for each meeting for the forthcoming year, and that covers all the responsibilities outlined in this charter.
- 7.2.6 The secretariat will:
- ensure the agenda for each meeting is approved by the Chair
 - the agenda and supporting papers are circulated, at least one week before the meeting

- ensure the minutes of the meetings are prepared and retained
- record, actively monitor and ensure timely closure of internal audit recommendations
- identify opportunities for AERC members to observe Library operations and share relevant information about the Library's operating environment to assist members to discharge their duties.

7.3 Induction of new Committee members and ongoing briefing of external members

7.3.1 The Committee will develop and maintain a program of induction, to help new Committee members meet their obligations. Ongoing briefings will be provided for external members to build their understanding of the operations and performance of the Library.

7.4 Declaration of Interests:

7.4.1 Once each year, non-Council members of the Committee will provide written declarations to the Chair for provision to the Council declaring any material personal interests they may have in relation to their responsibilities. Members should consider past employment, consultancy arrangements and related party issues in making these declarations.

7.4.2 The Council, in consultation with the Chair of the Committee, should be satisfied that there are sufficient processes in place to manage any real or perceived conflict.

7.4.3 At the beginning of each Committee meeting, members are required to declare any material personal interests that may apply to specific matters on the meeting agenda. Where required by the Chair, the member will be excused from the meeting or from the Committee's consideration of the relevant agenda item(s). The Chair is also responsible for deciding if he/she should excuse themselves from the meeting or from the Committee's consideration of the relevant agenda item(s).

7.4.4 Details of material personal interests declared by the Chair and other members, and actions taken, will be appropriately recorded in the minutes.

7.5 Assessment Arrangements:

7.5.1 The Chair, will initiate a self-assessment of the performance of the Committee at least once every two years.

7.5.2 The review will be conducted on a self-assessment basis (unless otherwise determined by Council) with appropriate input sought from Council members, Committee members, executive management, the internal and external auditors, Chief Financial Officer, and any other relevant stakeholders, as determined by the Chair of Council.

7.6 Review of Charter:

7.6.1 At least once a year the Committee will review this charter. This review will include consultation with the Council. Any changes to the charter will be recommended by the Committee and formally approved by the Council.
